Glenn moved to sign the Insurance amendment to the handbook. Orville seconded the motion. The motion carried.

Sean Wendel & John Riggins entered the meeting at 10:00 am. Sean discussed grants that could be available. He then discussed chemical for Noxious Weed. He presented a bid for 40 gallons of Quinstar from Nutrien for $6,500.00. Mark moved to accept the bid and Orville seconded. The motion carried. Payment will be from the Noxious Weed Fund. The bid is on file.

Commissioners then made the decision that if an individual or business requests chemical it has to be paid for upfront before the county will order it. There will not be any charge accounts for chemical purchases.

Bids were presented and discussion was held about the roof at the 4-H and Extension building. It needs to be replaced. Insurance is still deciding what they will pay towards the replacement. Mark will get ahold of Insurance. Mark then moved to accept the bid of $68,470.00 from Diamond Roofing for replacing the roof. Orville seconded the motion. The motion carried. Payment will be from the Capital Improvements Fund. The bids are on file.
